Probably the first one, because it’s awesome, and I was hooked immediately. However, my favorite book is either Book 4 (Starflight POV YAYZ) or Darkstalker Legends.

1 of eleven - hc
2 of twelve (I was visiting realitives on the other side of the country when hive queen came out, so i had to get the e-book in order to read hive queen on the day it came out) - Ebook and hc

1 of darkstalker - hc all four of the winglets - Ebooks
as you can most likely tell, i love WoF and the day Tui stops writing WoF I will cry my heart out
I was at a bookstore, having trouble finding good books, when this employee came up and did the standard routine, asking what i like to reaad, etc. Then he suggested WoF book one. SO I purchased one, read it, loved it, went to library to get two, three, four, and five. (and a few weeks later, moon rising came out.)
The instant I finished reading my books I went over to my mom and demanded I get to buy all the books.
I then got to buy them, and i have been reading tui since before book six came out.
Thats my little claim to fame.

I got the first five books for Christmas a little while ago, read them all, and thought they were done. Two months ago, I heard my friends talking and realized that there were 5 more books out. Right away, I grabbed my stash of money and ran to the bookstore after remembering how good the first five were. I bought 6-8 the first time, along with Darkstalker, which I read first. OH MY GOSH, I love that book so much! I think Tui should come out with more "Legends" books. Like when Clearsight went to Pantala! I'd love to hear the full story! Anyways, I read all those, and bought the rest up to #12, along with "Winglets" and the first graphic novel. The art was beautiful and I can't wait for more. I love this series even if it's for kids younger than me. Some of the scenes are so deep and thank you for the awesome experience.
